/ (the average price of the share increased by the value of the subscription right).

Recalculated number of shares = (previous number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscription for) x (the share's average price increased by the value of the subscription right)
/ (the average price of the stock).

The average price of the share is calculated in accordance with what is stated in item C above.

The value of the subscription right shall be deemed to correspond to the average of the average of the highest and lowest price paid during the day for each trading day during the subscription period according to the price list on which the subscription right is listed. In the absence of a price paid, the instead the last quoted purchase price should be included in the calculation. If neither the price paid nor the purchase price is noted on a certain day, such date shall be disregarded in the calculation of the value of the subscription right.

If the subscription right is not subject to listing, the value of the subscription right shall, as far as possible, be determined on the basis of the change in market value relating to

The Company's shares that can be deemed to have arisen as a result of the issue of the warrants or convertibles.

In the case of subscription carried out during the period before the recalculated subscription price and the recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscribe for have been determined, the provisions of item C, paragraph 10 above shall apply correspondingly.

E. OFFERS TO SHAREHOLDERS

Should the Company in cases other than those referred to in this

A-D above make an offer to the shareholders to, with preferential rights to the shareholders in accordance with the principles in Chapter 13

1 of the Swedish Companies Act, to acquire from the Company securities or rights of any kind or resolve, in accordance with the above-mentioned principles, to distribute such securities or rights to the shareholders free of charge, in the event of subscription that is required for such a period that the share thereby received does not entitle the holder to participate in the offer, a recalculated subscription price and a recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for. The restatement shall be carried out by the Company as follows:

Recalculated subscription price = (previous subscription price) x (the share's average market price during the application period set out in the offer (the "average share price") / (the average price of the share increased by the value of the right to participate in the Offer (the "value of the purchase right").

Recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles to = (previous number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscribe) x (the share's average price increased by the value of the purchase right) / (the average price of the stock).

The average price of the share is calculated in accordance with the provisions of item C above.

In the event that the shareholders have received purchase rights and trading in these has taken place, the value of the right to participate in the offer shall be deemed to correspond to the value of the purchase right.

In this context, the value of the purchase right shall be deemed to correspond to the average of the average of the highest and lowest price paid during the day for each trading day during the period of the application according to the price list on which the right to purchase is recorded. In the absence of a quoted price paid, the last quoted purchase price shall instead be included in the calculation. If neither the price paid nor the purchase price is noted on a given day, such a date shall be disregarded in the calculation of the value of the purchase right.

In the event that the shareholders have not received purchase rights or if such trading in purchase rights as referred to in the previous paragraph has not taken place, the subscription price shall be recalculated in accordance as far as possible with the principles set out above in this item E, in which case the following shall apply.

If the securities or rights offered to the shareholders are listed, the value of the right to participate in the offer shall be deemed to be equal to the average of the average of the shares of the shares for each trading day during the 25 trading days from the first day of such listing. the highest and lowest price paid during the day for transactions in those securities or rights on the marketplace on which those securities or rights are listed, less, where applicable, the consideration paid for them in connection with the offer. In the absence of a quoted price paid, the last quoted purchase price shall instead be included in the calculation.

If neither the price paid nor the bid price is quoted on a given day, such day shall be disregarded in the calculation of the value of the right to participate in the offer. When recalculating according to this of the subscription price and the number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe, the said period of 25 trading days shall be deemed to correspond to the application period stipulated in the offer in accordance with the first paragraph of this item E.

If the securities or rights offered to the shareholders are not listed, the value of the right to participate in the offer shall, as far as possible, be determined on the basis of the change in market value of the Company's shares that can be deemed to have arisen as a result of the offer.

The subscription price recalculated above and the number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for shall be determined by the Company as soon as possible after the value of the right to participate in the offer has been calculated

If the Company's shares at the time of the offering are not subject to market listing, a corresponding recalculation shall take place, partly of the subscription price and partly of the number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe.

The recalculation, which shall be carried out by the Company, shall be based on the premise that the value of the warrants shall be left unchanged.

In the case of subscription carried out during the period before the recalculated subscription price and the recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscribe for have been determined, the provisions of item C, paragraph 10 above shall apply correspondingly.

F. EQUAL TREATMENT OF WARRANT HOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDERS

In the event of a new issue of shares against cash payment with preferential rights for the shareholders or an issue in accordance with Chapter 14 or 15 of the Swedish Companies Act against cash payment with preferential rights for the shareholders, the Company may decide to give all warrant holders the same preferential rights as the shareholders. In doing so, each warrant holder shall, notwithstanding the fact that no subscription for shares has been made or executed, be deemed to be the owner of the number of shares that the warrant holder would have received, if the subscription had been executed according to the subscription price and the number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for that was in force at the time of the issue decision.

If the Company resolves to make such an offer as described in item E above, what is stated in the previous paragraph shall apply correspondingly, however, that the number of shares that the warrant holder shall be deemed to be the owner of in such case shall be determined on the basis of the subscription price and the number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for at the time of the decision to make the offer.

If the Company resolves to grant the warrant holders preferential rights in accordance with what is stated in this item F, no recalculation shall take place in accordance with items C, D or E above of the subscription price or the number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe.

G. DIVIDEND

If the Company decides to pay a dividend (whether ordinary or extraordinary dividend) to the shareholders in the form of money, the subscription price shall be adjusted in accordance with the calculation below.

Subscription price per share (in SEK) – total dividend per share (in SEK) from 2025 = Adjusted subscription price.

The total dividend per share (in SEK) shall be determined on the basis of the principles for recalculation of warrants set out in these terms and conditions. For example, if there is a share split, the total dividend per share (in SEK) before the share split must be recalculated in the same order as the shares.

H. REDUCTION OF SHARE CAPITAL

If the Company's share capital should be reduced by repayment to the shareholders and such reduction is mandatory, a recalculated subscription price shall be applied as well as a recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe.

The restatement is carried out by the Company as follows:

Recalculated subscription price = (previous subscription price) x (the average market price of the share during a period of 25 trading days calculated from the date on which the share is listed without the right to repayment (the "share's average price")) / (the average price of the share increased by the amount refunded per share).

Recalculated number of shares = (previous number of shares that each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe) x (the average price of the share increased by the amount repaid per share) / (the average price of the share).

The average price of the share is calculated in accordance with the provisions of item C above.

In the case of recalculation as described above, and where the reduction is made through redemption of shares, instead of the actual amount repaid per share, an estimated repayment amount shall be used as follows:

Estimated repayment amount per share = (the actual amount repaid per redeemed share less the share's average market price over a period of 25 trading days immediately prior to the date on which the share is listed without the right to participate in the reduction (the "share's average price")) / (the number of shares in the Company on which a share is based less by the number 1).

The average price of the share is calculated in accordance with the provisions of item C above.

The recalculated subscription price and the recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscribe for shall be determined by the Company two banking days after the end of the specified period of 25 trading days and shall be applied to share subscription executed thereafter.

In the case of subscription carried out during the period before the recalculated subscription price and the recalculated number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscribe for have been determined, the provisions of item C, paragraph 10 above shall apply correspondingly.

If the Company's share capital were to be reduced through redemption of shares with repayment to the shareholders and such reduction is not mandatory, but where, in the Company's opinion, the reduction in view of its technical design and financial effects is equivalent to a reduction that is mandatory, recalculation shall be of the subscription price and the number of shares that each warrant entitles to subscribe for shall be made with the application as far as possible of the principles set out in this item H.

If the Company's shares are not subject to market listing at the time of the reduction, a defendant shall recalculation of the subscription price will be made. The

The restatement shall be based on the part of the Company's assets and liabilities that are taken over by the acquiring company.
